

Roosevelt Out of State Fight for Governor

He Will Take No Part in the Whitman-Lewis Contest

Declares Wisconsin Thoroughly Loyal

Back From West, He Regrets Treatment of Wood; Glad He Met Taft

Enthusiastic over conditions as he found them in a week's speaking tour of Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt returned to New York last night. He was particularly pleased with the Wisconsin situation and over his meeting with William Howard Taft in Chicago last Sunday night, when their friendly relations were resumed.

Colonel Roosevelt will not take any part in the Whitman-Lewis contest. Reporters who sought an expression of opinion were met with the statement: "I am taking no part in local contests."

In the matter of General Leonard Wood's treatment he was more talkative, declaring from the standpoint of national needs the failure to make use of "so great an asset" to be "a grave misfortune."

Colonel Roosevelt made three speeches in Springfield, Ohio, and two each in Des Moines, Iowa; Madison, Wis.; Milwaukee and Detroit. In each of these places, particularly Milwaukee, a member of his party said, the Colonel talked "100 per cent Americanism," and in each place he and his doctrine were well received. In Milwaukee, in Madison, agents of La Follette kept close watch on his movements, but did not interfere.

"Wisconsin," said Colonel Roosevelt last night, "not only heartily approves but is doing wonderful work. Into the army and navy he has sent nearly 60,000 men, and has nearly 40,000 registered to immediately take their place."

"A subscribed nearly $125,000,000 to the Liberty Loan, and nearly $2,500,000 to the Red Cross, and M. C. A. and other organizations. She was the first state in the Union to organize a state council of defense and the first to provide by law in generous fashion for the wives, children and dependent mothers of her men who have gone to the front."

"She has acted with such promptness and efficiency in meeting every demand made upon her by the Federal government that I cannot but have said, 'I have come to expect the best of Wisconsin.'"

"In all this work of enlisting men and subscribing money, a great majority of the men and women of Wisconsin who are of German blood have taken exactly the same part that has been taken by their fellow Americans of other blood. And that all the men of Wisconsin, like the rest of us, are growing to realize that all of us in this country have been too lax in our treatment of the German people, and that all of us must be handled with the most rigorous severity."

"I was introduced by August Vogel. He is of German blood. Three of his sons are already in the army, and the fourth, who is eighteen, is going this morning. The guest of honor on the platform was General Winkler, a Civil War veteran now in Germany, whose two sons-in-law and one grandson are now in our army."

"Wisconsin, like the rest of the country, took some time to wake up, but Wisconsin is thoroughly aroused. The people, like the good people of this nation everywhere, are growing steadily more resolved that all peace talk must stop and that the time has come to finish, no matter how long it takes, and no matter how great the cost, until Germany is beaten to her knees."

Tells of Meeting Taft
"Do you care to say anything about your meeting with Mr. Taft in Chicago?" It was a very pleasant surprise to me to have the half-hour talk with Mr. Taft and to resume our relations on the old basis," he replied, adding, "I am an entire agreement on all of the vital questions connected with winning the war, by striking down Germany and putting down every form of treason here. I am in entire agreement with you on the question of insistent upon an absolutely unified and nationalized American citizenship."

"We did not talk politics at all. I am talking politics nowadays. My sole concern is the winning of the war, and I am heart and soul with every man who is a straight American and who efficiently, zealously and patriotically is doing his part to win the war. I am heart and soul with every man who is a straight American and who efficiently, zealously and patriotically is doing his part to win the war."

Regrets Wood Situation
Asked if he cared to comment on the refusal to permit Major General Leonard Wood to leave the country, Colonel Roosevelt confined his remarks to the national aspect of the case.

"I am concerned at this refusal to let a great asset, it is a grave misfortune that the country is deprived of the services of a man of such great power and ability, recognized not only by all competent judges here, but by the best soldiers of France and England, should not have been used hitherto and should not now be used."

Cruelty in School Denied by Pupils
Accused Teacher's Counter Charge Against Other Instructors Contradicted at Hearing

In Magistrate Groehl's court last Monday Harold Dunkelbloom, a teacher in Public School 45, Amsterdam Avenue and 148th Street, defended himself on a charge of striking one of his boys by making a counter charge that he had seen other teachers at the school chastise children. He said he had seen the principal, Dr. Vandenberg, beat the heads of children against the blackboard.

Magistrate Groehl gave the teachers an opportunity to appear in court. Yesterday Dunkelbloom was confronted in court by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

He was confronted by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

He was confronted by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

He was confronted by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

He was confronted by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

He was confronted by nearly every teacher in Public School 45 and by the parents of many of the pupils. The charge against Dunkelbloom was that he had struck one of his boys.

Fusion Leaders Want Court to Set Indictments Aside

Child's Lawyer Claims Error in Advertising of Grand Jury

The Appellate Division reserved decision yesterday on the motion of John B. Stanchfield, counsel for William Hamlin Childs, indicted for alleged irregularities in connection with the expenditure of fusion funds in the last municipal election, to have the proceedings set aside on the ground that the legal requirements for the convening of an extraordinary grand jury were not carried out.

Council also asked for an order restraining Justice Goff from taking any further action in the case. Three other indicted men, who are affected by the proceeding, are former Governor William Sulzer, former Senator Josiah T. Newcomb and former Coroner Timothy Healy.

Error in Advertising
Mr. Stanchfield based his motion on an error made in the official advertisement announcing the convening of the court, which, he said, nullified the entire proceedings, as the court did not have jurisdiction to act in the matter. The mistake lay in that one of the newspapers designated printed the date of the two consecutive days instead of once a week.

"Popular excitement, such as is usual in large exposures, as the spending of money for a recent primary campaign," Mr. Stanchfield argued, "led by a zealous District Attorney, and by a zealous District Attorney, has brought about an indictment of William Hamlin Childs, who has not been charged with a crime."

Mr. Stanchfield said that the order of Governor Whitman had been only partly complied with. He cited authorities which showed that other proceedings had been nullified under similar circumstances. He stated that the alleged failure of Mr. Childs to file by the Fusion schedule of moneys paid out by the Fusion campaign for which he was indicted was a mistake and that the facts did not constitute a crime. Three indictments were returned against Mr. Childs because he failed to report the payment of $5,000 to William Sulzer and $5,000 to Mischa Appellbaum.

60 Cases Affected by Reversal
Robert S. Johnstone, Assistant District Attorney, said that, while the order of the Governor may have been literally complied with, the object of the law was not achieved. He stated that the reversal of the case would affect 60 other convictions obtained in the extraordinary session.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Missing Child Found Asleep, Clasp Doll
Two Maids Held by Police in Connection With Maria Sandi's Disappearance

Maria Sandi, the eleven-year-old adopted daughter of Señora Enriquez de Hine, of 345 West Eighty-eighth Street, was this case would upset sixty other convictions obtained in the extraordinary session.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Presiding Justice Clarke remarked that the argument was a valid one, adding that the court had nothing to do with the convictions that might be upset through the case at bar.

Reed Is Arrested In Philadelphia

Seized Making a Soapbox Speech After Police Prohibit Hall Meeting

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—John Reed, the Socialist and representative of the Russian Bolsheviks, was arrested here to-night while trying to make a soapbox speech on a street corner. He was held on a charge of inciting to riot and breach of the peace.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Reed was to have addressed a meeting in a hall to-night under socialist auspices, but the police prohibited the meeting on the ground this was not an appropriate time for such a gathering. When he and his followers found the hall barred against them they went around the corner, and when Reed started to speak the police stopped him. There was some interference with the police and in a short mix-up which followed Reed and another man were arrested. No one was hurt.

Mayor Formally Denies He Treated Curtin "Shabbily"

Explains Refusal to Grant Physician Leave of Absence During War

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army.

Mayor Hylan last night issued a statement taking exception to the complaint of Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, assistant medical examiner in the Bronx, that the Mayor had treated him "shabbily" by refusing to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr. Curtin promptly resigned his position as assistant medical examiner, but the Mayor refused to grant him a leave of absence during the period of the war to join the medical corps of the army. Dr